Piggy tries more to catch his breath while deciding what to do. Rosa just shrugs.

Rosa: I'm not chasing you. I'm just crossing the street to go to school.

Piggy You know how to cross the street? Can you teach me how?

Rosa: But you're too small! The cars might hit you! You better let me carry you across the street.

Piggy: You're lying. You just want to eat me!

Rosa crosses her arms and stomps her foot.

Rosa: I NEVER lie! I don't care if you don't believe me because I have to cross or else I'm going to be late for school.

The light turns green and Rosa takes a step off the sidewalk as Piggy looks back to see everyone chasing after him.

Piggy: Wait! Please carry me across!

Rosa thinks for a moment.

Rosa: Ay! I better not be late! Come on and jump in my backpack, or they're going to see you.

Piggy sticks his tongue out at the crowd on the corner. He hides.

Piggy: Ha! They didn't catch me; I knew they were too slow!

Piggy wiggles down into the backpack and falls asleep.
